

Who were the Romans?

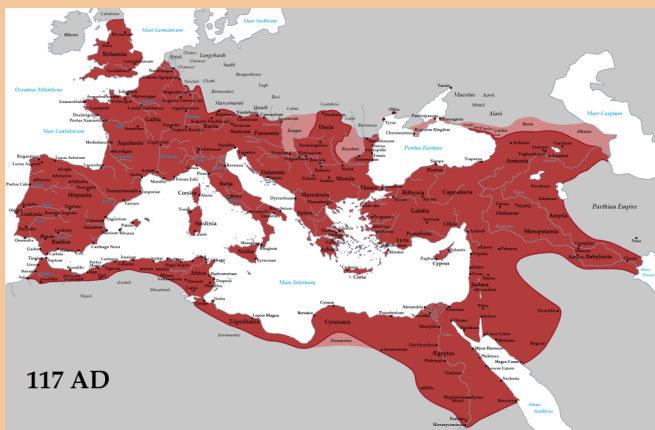

Who founded Rome?

- According to legend, there were two twins: Romulus and Remus.
- They were the sons of the war God Mars and Princess Rhea.
- Legend says the twins were raised by a she-wolf.
- Romulus killed Remus and founded Rome, which is named after him.

How big was the Roman Empire?

- Rome grew from a small city to rule large parts of Europe and Asia.
- The Empire mostly grew by conquest with their well trained legions of soldiers.
- The Empire was at its biggest in 117CE.

Organisation of Ancient Rome

- Ancient Rome started as a monarchy with a king.
- In 509 BCE, Rome became a Republic where citizens of Rome (not everyone) would vote for 300 senators who would advise the 2 consuls.
- In 27 BCE Rome became an Empire, with control focussed in an emperor who was advised by the Senate.

Ancient Roman Life

- Romans were divided into different social groups.
 1. Slaves (who could not vote)
 2. Plebeians (who could vote)
 3. Patricians (who could vote and were the group who could become senators)
- Women could not vote and had few rights in Ancient Rome. Her life was decided by the man of the house.

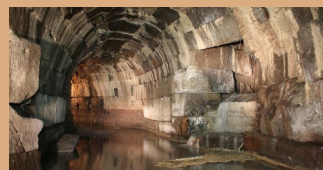

Ancient Roman Technology

Aqueducts

Public Baths

Sewers

Roads